in has wrong ed." com- o cur- these entities," the chargesheet read. This was done to allegedly bypass the central bank directive on concentration of credit in a single company or single group of borrowers.

stress, induced by the lack of investments in the private sector and capacity overhang. Financing crunch also held back the completion of projects.

In the standalone textile and chemicals business, net profit fell 69% to ₹202 crore due to low realisations as global viscose staple fibre (VSF) prices declicontinue putting pressure on prices. Chemicals business will gain from expansion in both its chlor-alkali and speciality chemicals business, it said.
